

g on the tracks with people standley car from which I fell had run my left shoe and mashed it to a ble, but when my shoe and stocking n't even a scratch on my foot. If coming from the other direction, v.

from injury due to the fact that I of shoes. The salesman had told onger than needed as I was growing in my possession and I always feel pass a Coward shoe store.

n Park adjoining the old Plank nd back to the Hackensack River e Glendale Woods. In wintertime g down there and I can remember as we whizzed around on double e winter headquarters of a circus y occupied by the park garage.

first baseball club at Belmont and diamond was where the fountain ies' Day and I remember walking other and a friend or two of hers, parasol and wearing long sweeping oward Harrison Avenue was a golf remember. The clubhouse is still dministration building.

coln Park was known as West Side nged when the Lincoln Memorial Boulevard entrance. The park was er areas in Jersey City.

he southwest end of the park have 09. Originally, there were twelve er was increased to eighteen. Tennis ne years from 1910 to 1950. The

NO. 1 — AUTHOR — AGE 6 YEARS

NO. 2 — HOME ON BENTLEY AVENUE